One Pack. One Goal

That simple statement was introduced by Dave Doeren when he took over the Wolfpack football program in 2012. A dozen years later, that statement has become a culture.

Wolfpack Football under Doeren is known for tough, hard-working players who play for a common goal - not for the individual, but for the Pack.

That culture has paid off with success on the field. Doeren has led the Wolfpack to 81 victories – the highest total in school history.

He boasts the second-longest tenure in the ACC and the sixth-longest in the FBS. He has guided NC State to at least eight wins in six of the last seven seasons, with four nine-win campaigns in that time. In the Power conferences, only four other teams (Georgia, Alabama, Notre Dame and Clemson) have won eight or more games in each of the past four years.

The Wolfpack ranks second in the ACC in conference wins since 2020 with 23 (second only to Clemson's 26) and nine of his 11 Wolfpack squads have qualified for postseason bowls - the most of any coach in program history.

Between 2017-24, 22 of his players were drafted by the NFL - including an ACC-best seven in 2017. Three of his players have gone on to be first-round picks, including OT Ikem Ekwonu in 2022, C Garrett Bradbury in 2019 and DE Bradley Chubb in 2018.

The Wolfpack has boasted 66 Academic All-ACC performers under his guidance - including a program-high 13 in 2022 - and in 2018 had a player named to the prestigious NFF National Scholar-Athlete Team.

Five of his players have won seven national awards. Bradley Chubb won the Nagurski Trophy and the Hendricks Award in 2017, Garrett Bradbury was the recipient of the 2019 Rimington Trophy, last season, Christopher Dunn won the Lou Groza Award. In 2023 LB Payton Wilson brought home the Butkus and Bednarik Awards while long snapper Joe Shimko won the Patrick Mannelly Award. He has coached two ACC Defensive Players of the Year.

Over the 2020, '21 and '22 seasons, the Wolfpack won 16 straight home games, tying as the longest home winning streak in school history. The 2021 squad became the first since 1986 (35 years!) to go undefeated at home (and that squad did post one tie) and one of just six teams in school history to post an unblemished record at Carter-Finley Stadium.

In 2023, the Wolfpack won five straight league games (for the first time in 50 years) to close the season and qualify for the Pop-Tarts Bowl in Orlando. His defense ranked in the top 25 nationally in 10 different categories and the Pack finished 18th in the final CFP rankings.

The 2022 Wolfpack team was the first since 1980 not to give up more than 30 points in a game all season and the Wolfpack was the only Power 5 team to accomplish that feat in 2022.

In 2022, injuries forced the Wolfpack to start four different players at the quarterback spot, with each of the four earning a victory.

Wolfpack fans stormed the field twice in 2021, as Doeren's Pack knocked off ninth-ranked Clemson in double overtime and then scored 13 points in 95 seconds to knock off visiting UNC and close out the regular season.

The Pack was poised for its 10th win of the season in the SDCCU Holiday Bowl before a game-day cancellation by UCLA shocked the nation. Still, NC State's final rankings (18th in CFP, 20th in AP) were the program's highest since 2002.

In 2021, with five new coaches on staff (not to mention a global pandemic to contend with), the Wolfpack made one of the most impressive turnarounds in college football, posting an 8-4 record and earning the sixth bowl bid of his Wolfpack tenure. Doeren led his resilient squad to seven ACC victories - a new school record.

That successful campaign followed a season that saw the Wolfpack decimated by injuries with seven players (including five starters) lost for the season. Because of injuries, a Power 5 conference-leading 45 players started games in 2019 and the Pack played the nation's second-highest total of freshmen.

With nine victories, the 2018 Wolfpack was one of just six teams in the 126-year history of NC State football to post nine or more regular season wins. It marked the first time since 1991-92 that NC State had posted back-to-back nine-win seasons and was only the third time in school history that had been accomplished.

Doeren's teams qualified for five consecutive bowl games (2014-18) - the second-longest bowl streak in school history - and he is only the second coach in school history to take teams to five straight postseason bowls.

The Wolfpack boasted an ACC-best six first-team all-conference performers in 2018 and became the first team in school history to place two wide receivers on the first team.

His 2017 squad posted nine wins for the season, including a 6-2 mark in the ACC - the most in 23 years. The squad finished the year with a resounding win in the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

In 2016, while facing a daunting schedule, his squad won three of its last four games, including a win at rival UNC and an Independence Bowl victory over SEC opponent Vanderbilt. Four of the squad's losses in 2016, including two to ranked teams, were by seven points or less.

In 2015, Doeren took one of the nation's youngest teams and went to battle against three teams that ended the regular season ranked in the top 10. NC State won four road games in 2015, more than any Wolfpack squad since 2002. No other State team has turned in more road victories since 1957. The team posted numbers on offense and special teams that were among the top marks in school history.

In 2014, his second year as the head coach at NC State, his team was the second-most improved in the Power 5 conferences. The Wolfpack more than doubled its win total from the previous season, earned a bowl victory and posted its highest team GPA in program history.

The 2014 Wolfpack squad was only the second in school history to score 40 or more points in five regular season games and posted its best rushing average since 1992. Despite the tough league schedule in 2015, the team posted four 40+ point games and an almost identical rushing output.

He came to NC State after leading the program at Northern Illinois to its most successful two years in program history. His first Husky squad won the school's first Mid-American Conference Championship since 1983 and tied the school record with 11 wins. His second version repeated as league champions and set a new school record by posting 12 victories for the season and earned a trip to the Orange Bowl - the first BCS berth ever for a MAC school. Doeren was a finalist for several national coach of the year awards following the 2012 campaign.

Under Doeren's leadership, NIU boasted the nation's longest conference winning streak with 17 straight wins versus MAC opponents. The Huskies never lost a home game during his tenure in DeKalb, winning a dozen home contests in his two seasons to extend the nation's longest home winning streak to 21 games.

Prior to his stint in DeKalb, Doeren spent five seasons in the Big Ten at Wisconsin, where he served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. During Doeren's time in Madison, the Badgers posted a 49-15 overall mark and played in the Champs Sports Bowl twice, the Outback Bowl, the Capital One Bowl and the Rose Bowl.

For his first two seasons in Madison, he served as co-defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator/linebackers coach and in 2008, was named the primary defensive coordinator.

Doeren arrived at Wisconsin after four seasons (2002-05) at the University of Kansas, where he served as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator for three seasons before being promoted to co-defensive coordinator under head coach Mark Mangino.

During Doeren's time at Kansas, the Jayhawks ended a seven-year bowl drought, earning bids to the 2003 Tangerine Bowl and the 2005 Ft. Worth Bowl. The opponent in that first bowl appearance was a Philip Rivers-led NC State team.

In 2000 and 2001, Doeren coached the secondary at NCAA Division I-AA (now Football Championship Subdivision) powerhouse Montana, also serving as the Grizzlies' recruiting coordinator for one year. Montana advanced to the I-AA national championship game in 2000, losing by two points, but returned to win the national title the following season. The Grizzlies posted a 28-3 record and won two Big Sky Conference championships in his two years with the program and he coached five All-Americans, four All-Big Sky performers and two league defensive MVPs.

Doeren grew up right outside of Kansas City, where he watched his grandfather, Thomas Glennon, coach high school basketball and track. He loved the respect his grandfather commanded from his players, even after he retired from coaching.

When he left for college at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, his goals were to play football, earn a pre-med degree, go to med school and become an orthopedic doctor. He accomplished the first two.

He lettered at tight end for the Bulldogs, catching 19 catches for 237 yards for his career. He majored in pre-medical biology, earning Academic All-America honors as a senior. He took the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT). His plans for the future changed, however, during the summer between his junior and senior years when his former coach at Bishop Miege High School asked him to lead seven-on-seven drills.

From that moment on, he decided he wanted to be a coach. He pursued that goal with a relentlessness that never wavered. Instead of heading to med school, he landed his first coaching job in 1994, right there in Kansas at Shawnee Mission Northwest High School. His collegiate coaching career began just a year later, when he was named an assistant coach at Drake, leading the linebackers from 1995-97 before adding defensive coordinator chores in 1997. He also earned his master's degree from Drake in educational leadership.

Doeren got his first taste of a bowl experience as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Southern California. During his stint with the Trojans, he began work on his Ph.D.

Doeren met his wife Sara while he was coaching at Drake and she was a nursing student. The couple has three sons: Jacob (24), Luke (21) and Connor (17).

DR. RANDY WOODSON, Chancellor

Dr. Randy Woodson became North Carolina State University's 14th chancellor in April 2010. Woodson leads the largest university in North Carolina, with nearly 38,000 students and a $2 billion budget. Under his leadership, the university created, implemented and completed "The Pathway to the Future," a strategic plan that elevated NC State's recognition among the nation's top public research universities. In 2021, NC State created the "Wolfpack 2030: Powering the Extraordinary" strategic plan to build on this momentum and carry the university even further.

NC State has become a lead university for two National Science Foundation Engineering Research Centers and one Manufacturing USA institute (and a partner in six others). The university has also expanded to more than 65 industry and government partnerships on its nationally recognized Centennial Campus. NC State has also garnered national and international recognition for its faculty and student scholarship.

NC State launched and completed the Think and Do the Extraordinary Campaign, which raised $2.1 billion for scholarships, research, programs and facilities, propelling the university to even greater heights.

A nationally recognized scholar and academic leader, Chancellor Woodson came to NC State having most recently served as provost and executive vice chancellor for academic affairs at Purdue University. An internationally renowned plant molecular biologist specializing in reproductive processes in agricultural crops, he earned his undergraduate degree in horticulture from the University of Arkansas and his M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in plant physiology from Cornell University.

Under Woodson's leadership, NC State has become a preeminent research enterprise known for solving real-world challenges — a true Think and Do university. His strategic vision has enabled the university to advance in areas of student success, innovative research and collaborative partnerships. This has resulted in students ready to solve real-world challenges, public-private partnerships that transform ideas into solutions, and a creative, engaging center of learning and exploration for all.

True to its land-grant heritage, NC State creates economic, societal and intellectual prosperity for the people of North Carolina and the country — with increasing momentum under Woodson's direction.

BOO CORRIGAN, Director of Athletics

Boo Corrigan assumed the role of Director of Athletics at NC State in April 2019 with a clear vision: to cultivate a culture defined by trust, accountability, passion, and empathy—a culture centered around being a Pack.

Five years later, his vision has materialized into a reality, yielding remarkable outcomes. Competitively, NC State Athletics has enjoyed unprecedented success during his tenure. Academically, the Wolfpack student-athletes have posted numbers that are the highest in school history. And finally, the student-athlete experience has been enhanced in many ways - large and small - under Corrigan's veteran leadership.

In 2023-24, NC State became just the third school ever to have its men's and women's basketball advance to the Final Four and its baseball team make it to the College World Series. The Wolfpack boasted its fourth consecutive top-25 Directors' Cup finish and its third straight in the top 20 while also bringing home five ACC titles. In fact, since 2018, the Wolfpack has won 24 conference titles (including five in 2023-24), five more than any other league school during that time frame.

Women's cross country brought home its third straight national title in 2023, beginning with the first NCAA title ever by a Wolfpack women's team in 2021. That squad, along with gymnastics, wrestling, men's swimming and men's basketball all won ACC titles, with the men's basketball squad winning five straight games to earn the first league championship for the Pack since 1987.

Five teams finished in the top 10 nationally, while another (four or five) finished in the top 25.

NC State's most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) is the highest it's ever been at 92%, while the Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 996 is also the best in school history. Of 22 varsity Wolfpack teams, 20 boasted a GPA of 3.0 or higher for 2023-24.

Corrigan was named a Cushman & Wakefield Athletics Director of the Year for 2022. It marked the second time in six years that Corrigan was honored, as he was named a 2017 Athletic Director of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics while he was the leader at Army.

In January of 2021, Corrigan was selected as a member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee, beginning a three-year term. He served as chairman of that prestigious group in 2022 and will do so again in 2023.

Prior to his time in Raleigh, Corrigan presided over one of the most successful eras in Army's history, setting milestones and records in competition and in the classroom. He oversaw a program that claimed 20 Patriot League regular-season or tournament championships and sent 14 teams to their respective NCAA postseason competitions.

Corrigan oversaw an unprecedented increase in athletic fundraising during his time at West Point. Including a 30 percent increase in membership for the Army A Club, a 200 percent increase in money raised and significant growth of the Athletic Department's endowments.

No stranger to the Atlantic Coast Conference, Corrigan also had stints at Duke and Florida State. His resume also includes stops at Notre Dame and the U.S. Naval Academy.

Corrigan spent much of his youth in Charlottesville while his father, the late Gene Corrigan, served as Virginia's athletic director from 1971 to 1981. Gene Corrigan was later athletics director at Notre Dame and commissioner of the ACC.

Corrigan is married to the former Kristen Aceto, who played field hockey and lacrosse at the University of Virginia and also earned a master's degree from the school. The couple has three children: Finley, Tre and Brian.

Corrigan received his bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Notre Dame in 1990 and earned a master's degree in education from Virginia Commonwealth University in 2013.

40 DICK CHRISTY

Halfback

At NC State: Scoring all 29 of NC State's points, Dick Christy earned the Wolfpack its first Atlantic Coast Conference Championship in a 29-26 win in the Pack's season-finale at South Carolina on Nov. 23, 1957. Christy earned first team All-America recognition from the Associated Press and United Press International for his efforts that season. He ended his career in '57 holding 14 NC State records and four ACC records. Nearly 40 years later, Christy's jersey was retired on Nov. 8, 1997 in a game against Maryland. He died in a car accident in 1965 and was named to the ACC's Silver Anniversary Team in 1978.

As a Professional: Christy played five seasons in the NFL, splitting time with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1958), Boston Patriots (1960) and the New York Titans (1961-63). He was selected to play in the 1962 AFL All-Star game and led the AFL and NFL in punt returns in 1961 and 1962 with 21.3 and 16.7 yards per return, respectively. In 1962, he was named his team's MVP, when he led the squad in rushing, punt returns and kickoff returns.

18 ROMAN GABRIEL

Quarterback

At NC State: A two-time All-American, Roman Gabriel starred at quarterback for NC State in the early 1960s and finished his career holding virtually every Wolfpack passing record. An academic All-American, Gabriel saw his jersey retired and presented to him by Governor Terry Sanford on Jan. 20, 1962 at halftime of an NC State-Maryland basketball game in Reynolds Coliseum. A first-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Rams, he went on to a distinguished professional career.

As a Professional: Gabriel played 15 seasons in the NFL, splitting time with the Los Angeles Rams (1962-72) and the Philadelphia Eagles (1973-77). He was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1969 and earned Pro Bowl spots in 1967, 1968, 1969 and 1970. He was the MVP of the 1970 Pro Bowl. He ranked as the Rams' all-time passing leader with 22,223 yards and 154 touchdowns (1,705 com./3,313 att.) and threw for 7,221 yards and 45 touchdowns (661 com./1,185 att.) with the Eagles. In 1973, he led the NFL with 3,219 yards and 23 touchdown passes. He still holds the Rams' career records for touchdown passes (154) and passes attempted (3,313), and ranks third in passing yards (22,223), and passes completed (1,705). Gabriel was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

He was also the first three-time All-ACC player in league history, earning accolades all three years that he lettered. As a junior, he led the voting for All-ACC lineman and after his senior campaign, participated in four college all-star games. ### NATIONAL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE TEAM/ WILLIAM CAMPBELL TROPHY FINALIST

In 2018, Ryan Finley became NC State's first player to be named to the prestigious National Football Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Team. He was a finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy®, which recognizes the country's top student-athlete based on academic success, football performance and exemplary community leadership.

As a finalist, Finley received an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the class and was honored at the 61st NFF Annual Awards Dinner in New York City.

Finley was the only player in the FBS who had already earned a master's degree heading into the season and he had also earned a second postgraduate degree and was working towards a third.
